A RASH BECOMES MASS OF HUMOR

On Baby's Face, Head and Shoulders—Parents Decided He Could Not Be Cured—Cuticura Made His Skin Perfectly Clear.

"Our boy was born in Toronto on Oct. 13, 1906, and when three months old a slight rash appeared on his cheek. What appeared to be a water blister would form. When it broke, matter would run out, starting new blisters until his entire face, head and shoulders were a mass of scabs and you could not see a particle of clear skin. Other parts of his body were affected, but not to such an extent. We did not know what to do for him and tried almost every remedy known in medicine. Indeed some of them only added to his suffering and one in particular, the Remedy, almost put the infant into convulsions. The family doctor prescribed for him and told him to bathe the baby in buttermilk. This did not help him. He was treated as an out-patient twice a week and he got worse. If anything. We then called in another doctor and inside of a week the boy was to all appearances cured. The doctor said his work was done. But the very next day it broke out as bad as ever.

We decided that it could not be cured and must run its course and so we just kept his arms bandaged to his side to prevent his tearing his flesh. We left Toronto and shortly after our arrival in Duluth, Minn., Cuticura Remedies were recommended. We started using them in May, 1909, and soon the cure was complete. You would not think he was the same child for Cuticura made the rash disappear and he is entirely free from the skin disease. We still use only Cuticura for baby's bath. In describing the class of lands wanted, the circular says regarding those containing timber, that the government will purchase both the land and the timber, or both timber and land, brush or burned lands not bearing merchantable timber, and abandoned farm lands, and also mineral lands, in which the owner may reserve the right to remove the deposits. Good agricultural land, however, will not be considered.

South Carolina lands in Oconee county; Tennessee lands in Johnson, Cocke, Sevier, Blount and Monroe counties; Virginia lands in Shenandoah, Rockingham, Warren, Page, Northern Bedford, Botetourt, Rockbridge, Washington, Smyth, Grayson and Wythe counties.

WILL SEEK INJUNCTION AGAINST COMMISSIONERS

Citizens Not Satisfied With Contract Awarded for Construction of Good Roads.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Front Royal, Va., March 30.—The county commissioners of this county awarded a contract to-day for the construction of seven miles of good roads. When the question of issuing bonds for the building of good roads came up last fall, it caused a bitter fight, and it is asserted that the voters understood that they were voting for a road to be built from this town to the top of the mountain, seven miles distant, to connect with a road that Rappahannock county has been building. The commissioners let the contract for the road to be built at two different points leading into the town. So bitter is the feeling over the decision of the commissioners, it is stated, that legal counsel will be employed, and an injunction asked for to prevent the completion of the contract they let.

Constable Not in Jail.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Newwood, Va., March 30.—Constable William Hughes, who shot and killed Wesley Fields at Warminster last Saturday night, when resisting arrest, is at his home here, and has never been confined in jail, as was reported, it being proven he was justifiable in shooting him.

Run of Fish Is Small.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lancaster, Va., March 30.—Fishermen have been engaged for several days in setting their traps along the bay and river shores of this region, but the recent high winds have torn many of the traps to pieces. As yet the run of spring fish has been very small, and the first herring of the season were offered for sale here yesterday.

WILL SHOW MOTIVE FOR PROSECUTION

Mayor Cutchin, of Roanoke, Declares He Will Prove His Innocence.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., March 30.—Following the report of the grand jury, given last night, in which Mayor Cutchin came in for severe criticism and was asked to show cause why he should not be removed from office, he issued to-day the following statement:

"The report of the special grand jury, published in this morning's paper, is such that I ask the public to withhold its judgment until after investigation, and ask my friends to believe me incapable of intentional wrongdoing. I declare, with all the interest of my soul, that I am innocent, and before an honest and just judge this fact will be shown, and the motives for my prosecution disclosed."

The Mayor also issued an order suspending Police Sergeant Lemon, who was mentioned in the grand jury report, which recommended his removal from office.

Circuit Court Convenes.
Roanoke, Va., March 30.—Circuit Court for the county of New Kent, convened here Tuesday, with Judge Tyler presiding. The case of Charles Moore for slander against C. L. Harrison, is now being tried, and a decision will probably be rendered to-morrow. Two indictments have been returned by the grand jury, one for carrying concealed weapons and the other charging assault.

COULDN'T CUT SLICE OF BREAD

Ipswich Lady Tells What Happened When She Decided to Take Advice of Her Friends.

Ipswich, S. D.—Mrs. Henry Royle, of this place, says: "I suffered for nearly 10 years with womanly trouble. The doctors could not help me, but Cardui has made me well and strong. Before I commenced to take Cardui I could not stand on my feet."

I was so weak I could not cut a slice of bread. Now I can stand all day, and I can do most of my work. I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. I have been feeling fine ever since I began to take it. Cardui was recommended to me by a friend, and I will gladly tell my friends of it. Cardui is a wonderful medicine."

If Cardui will relieve and cure such a stubborn and long-standing trouble as that of Mrs. Royle then it is only reasonable to believe it will quickly and surely help you, too.

Cardui is a general tonic for women, improving the appetite and building up the womanly constitution. You can always depend on Cardui, for its reliability and merit are proven by 50 years of continued success in treating troubles so common to women.

It will help you. Try it.

STATE CONVENTION MEETS THIS WEEK

Annual Session of Christian Endeavor Society Convenes To-Day.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Burlington, N. C., March 30.—Members of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor throughout North Carolina are anticipating with interest and pleasure the meeting of the thirtieth annual State convention, which begins in Burlington to-morrow afternoon. The sessions of the convention will be held in the Christian Church, and they will continue until Sunday evening.

The program will present a number of prominent speakers who are identified with Christian Endeavor in eleven denominations of the State. Rev. C. H. Hubbell, D. D., of Adrian, Mich., secretary of the Young People's Work for the entire Methodist Protestant Church, will also be present and will address the convention several times. Dr. Hubbell is recognized throughout the country as a prominent speaker, Bible student and teacher and leader in Christian work for young people. He has spent the past week in North Carolina, visiting a number of towns in the interest of the Christian Endeavor State Union and aiding in the organization of new societies. Christian Endeavor as a world-wide movement is in the midst of an active campaign at the present time, the object being the organization of 10,000 new societies and the addition of 1,000,000 new members during the time which shall elapse between the international convention, held in St. Paul in 1909, and that to be held in Atlantic City in July of the present year. The quota of new societies for North Carolina has been almost secured, and the hope of the State Union is that the entire number will be announced before the close of the convention.

The societies of Christian Endeavor in North Carolina number almost 200, with a total membership of over 1,500. Professor W. Harper, of Elon College, is president of the State Union, and in addition to the other officers, which are customary in any organization of this kind, there is a denominational vice-president from each denomination represented in the State Union.

Thomas—Dunlap.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Swope, Va., March 30.—Miss Elizabeth Dunlap, of Swope, and Alexander Thomas, of Staunton, were married at the home of the bride, at 10:30 Wednesday morning. The bride wore a tailored suit of blue chiffon cloth, with hat and gloves to match and carried Bride roses. Miss Lella Dunlap, of the groom's home, was maid of honor, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Harry Trimble, of Swope, best man. The parlor was decorated with evergreens and potted plants. The bride and groom left on a trip to North Carolina.

McNutt—Walton.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Rice Depot, Va., March 28.—A beautiful marriage was solemnized at Beulah Christian Church yesterday afternoon, when Samuel McDowell McNutt and Miss Mary Linda Walton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Walton, were married. The bridal party entered the church in the following order: the strains of the "Lohengrin" wedding march, which was played by Mrs. E. L. Walton; The bride, with her sister, Mrs. W. S. Weaver; the groom, with W. S. Weaver. The attendants were Miss Grace Walton, with Ed. Arvin; Miss Irene Ligon, with Edmond Garrett; Miss Mildred Vaughan, with Herman Bradshaw; Miss Lockett Walton, with Fred Walton; Miss Pearl Bruce, with W. A. Vaughan. The ushers were E. L. Walton, Fred Vaughan, Walshall Sam Bruce and Joe Ligon. The bride was handsomely gowned in white messaline silk, and her maid of honor also wore white messaline. The bridesmaids wore lingerie dresses and carried ferns.

RICHMOND MAN MAY BE CHIEF CLERK OF HOUSE
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, D. C., March 30.—It is learned here to-day that the Ways and Means Committee of the House will probably give the position of chief clerk of the House to J. J. Sinnott, of Richmond, if he fails to land the door-keeper's place. Sinnott is an applicant for the latter position, but as former Congressman Ryan, of New York, and Stokes Jackson, of Indiana, both want to be sergeant-at-arms, it is understood that one of them may get that place and one that of door-keeper. If this plan is followed Sinnott probably will be made chief clerk, with a salary of $4,000 a year.
